Library plans staff changes

Librarians at Sherrills Ford and Main Library in Newton will exchange places as of April 14, according to Karen Foss, director of Catawba County Library System.

April Green, Youth Services librarian in Newton, will serve as librarian at Sherrills Ford. Richard Griffin, who has served as librarian there for two years, will be reassigned to Youth Services at the Main Library.

The temporary rotation is part of an ongoing effort to develop staff, according to Karen Foss, library director.

“April Green recently earned her master of library science degree. Richard Griffin, who has experience in Youth Services, will be available to coordinate the Summer Reading program from Main Library,” Foss said. Summer Reading sign-ups begin May 29 for six weeks of programming starting the week of June 11.

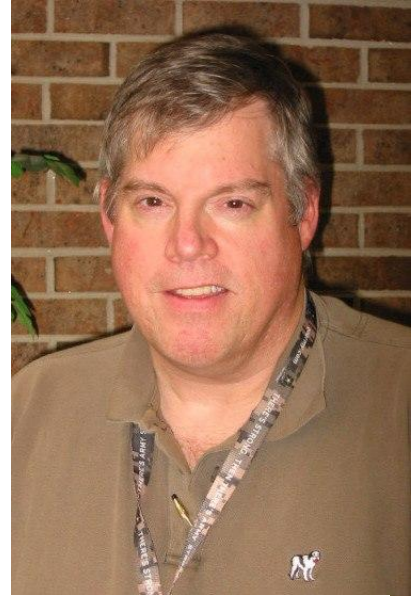

APRIL GREEN

Green completed her MLS degree at East Carolina University in December and has worked in Youth Services since 2010. She joined the library staff as a library assistant in 1997 and has worked in customer service in Newton and at the Southwest Branch in Mountain View. She also holds a B.A. degree from Lenoir-Rhyne University.

Griffin served in Youth Service prior to his assignment to Sherrills Ford in 2010. He holds an MLS degree from Appalachian State University and a bachelor's degree from Western Carolina.

Catawba County Library, which serves some 82,000 registered borrowers, operates locations in Newton, Conover, Claremont, Maiden, St. Stephens, Sherrills Ford and Southwest (Mountain View).
